

Only Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents are eligible to make contributions to a federal political entity.

Under the Canada Elections Act the commercial value of goods or services with a value of $200 or less that are provided free of charge by a person who does not supply these goods or services commercially is deemed to be nil- it is neither a contribution nor an expense.

Non-monetary contributions are not eligible for a receipt for income tax purposes. Receipts for Elections Canada purposes will be issued where applicable.
